

Directly issued from self contained BA development, the filtering BA gather benefits issued from respiratory MATISEC knowledge.

barrier mask AC50

The AC50 barrier mask is intended for use by healthy people without clinical symptoms of viral infection. It constitutes a protective barrier against possible viral penetration into the mouth and nose area of its user or a person being nearby. It also aims to protect this area against all contact with the hands.

>>Click here to see the instruction for use for this product<<

>>Click here to see the setting up of AC50 mask<<