

Products manufactured for the protection of people at work are often products that can be used with accessories.

Communication

The need for long-distance and proximity communication is an essential element in the ergonomics and safety of the intervention.

MATISEC has designed the TEAM TALK to fit perfectly into the suit, providing the essential functions:

- Full duplex for 4 carriers
- Handling of the 4 carriers on long distance radio